

Met Media is composed of four student-run units: Met TV news and entertainment programming; Met Radio internet station; The Metropolitan weekly newspaper; and Metrosphere art, literary and culture magazine. All are supplemented by sales, marketing and creative teams.

MyMetMedia.com

The livestream and coverage of Senior Day at the Capitol are brought to you by

Training the next generation of journalists and broadcasters

Student teams from Met Media at MSU Denver are broadcasting today's event live on the internet while interviewing legislators and seniors in attendance. Link to the livestream at MyMetMedia.com.

©Seth Doyle

www.MyMetMedia.com

YOU CAN BE A CHAMPION

Metropolitan State University of Denver Champions are passionate supporters willing to serve as advocates to inform and influence public policy decisions that impact the University. We are a network of advocates - including students, faculty, staff, alumni and community leaders - who create a strong, collective voice on behalf of MSU Denver.

MSU DENVER CHAMPIONS

It's easy to join! ►

Go to www.msudenver.edu/champions to sign up today and lend your voice to others in speaking up on important issues for MSU Denver. Once you're signed up, we'll be sure to email you updates and information about issues, events and other opportunities to become more involved.

msudenver.edu/champions

www.MyMetMedia.com