

Colorado Supreme Court 2 East 14th Avenue Denver, CO 80203	DATE FILED: March 16, 2020 CASE NUMBER: 2020SA100
Original Proceeding Pursuant to Article VI, Section 3 of the Constitution of the State of Colorado
In Re: Interrogatory on House Joint Resolution 20-1006 Submitted by the Colorado General Assembly.	Supreme Court Case No: 2020SA100
ORDER OF COURT

Upon consideration of the Petition to Accept Interrogatory of the Colorado General Assembly filed in the above cause, and now being sufficiently advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED that the Interrogatory is ACCEPTED. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Governor, Attorney General, the General Assembly, either as a body or individual members, and any other interested persons may file simultaneous briefs concerning the Interrogatory with the Clerk of the Colorado Supreme Court no later than 5 p.m. on Tuesday, March 24, 2020. The briefs shall contain no more than 9,500 words and are to be served in electronic format on any other party who has entered an appearance. Briefs must comply with the Colorado Appellate Rules.

The submitted Interrogatory is as follows:

Does the provision of section 7 of article V of the state constitution that limits the length of the regular legislative session to “one hundred twenty calendar days” require that those days be counted consecutively and continuously beginning with the first day on which the regular legislative session convenes or may the General Assembly for purposes of operating during a declared disaster emergency interpret the limitation as applying only to calendar days on which the Senate or the House of Representatives, or both, convene in regular legislative session?

BY THE COURT, EN BANC, MARCH 16, 2020.
